Location:

C/ José Gestoso, 6
41003, Sevilla

Language School Description:

YES (Youth Exchanges in Spain) is an educational training centre specialised in language teaching and the promotion of international educational exchanges. YES was established in 2008, focusing on programmes financed by the EU as an academy to teach foreigners the Spanish language. Where courses were once tailored specifically to North American students, in recent years their services have developed further. As well as Spanish language courses, they now offer English, French and German along with other languages depending on demand. YES boast a wide range of courses at their academy, from preparation for official exams and business courses tailored for companies, to specialist programmes teaching English or German to those under 14 years of age.

Role Description:

The participant will carry out a 13-week teaching internship in Yes in Spain, where they will have the chance to deliver lessons to different levels and age groups. They will also have the opportunity to observe lessons carried out by other teachers, as well as attend teacher trainings that will extend their knowledge about the TEFL world. They will be performing exam preparations, as well as one-to-one and conversation classes. The successful participant will also observe and assist classes at a variety of levels and courses, including exam preparation classes, general English classes and children's groups, prepare and create materials for conversation classes held twice per week and other classes for adults, potentially conduct oral level tests, correct writing examples for level tests and substitute teacher role.

Required Applicant Profile:

- Applicants must hold a TEFL qualification, e.g. CELTA or TESOL
- Applicants must have an interest in teaching English to different age groups and levels
- Knowledge of Spanish is useful but not a requirement
